15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Whoever has ears ought to hear."
- Mt 13:3, 7-9

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1990, 1970 CCD. ©LPI

A Creed to Live By

- * Don't undermine your worth by comparing yourself with others. It is because we are different that each of us is special.
- * Don't set your goals by what other people deem important. Only you know what is best for you
- * Don't let your life slip through your fingers by living in the past or for the future. By living life one day at a time, you live all the days of your life.
- * Don't give up when you still have something to give. Nothing is really over until the moment you stop trying.
- * Don't take for granted the things close to your heart. Cling to them as you would your life, for without them life is meaningless.
- * Don't be afraid to admit that you are less than perfect. It is this fragile thread that binds us to each other.
- * Don't be afraid to encounter risks. It is by taking chances that we learn how to be brave.
- * Don't shut love out of your life by saying it is impossible to find. The quickest way to receive love is to give love. The fastest way to lose love is to hold it too tightly, and the best way to keep love is to give it wings.
- * Don't dismiss your dreams. To be without dreams is to be without hope; to be without hope is to be without purpose.
- * Don't run through life so fast that you forget, not only where you have been, but also where you are going. Life is not a race, but a journey to be savored each step of the way.
